NEW BUSINESS

CASE 24-05 – LAVISH SALON AND SPA REQUESTS A USE DETERMINATION – 541 BELLE AVENUE.

Mr. Smith explained that this request is to determine if cosmetic tattooing, commonly referred to as permanent make-up, is an extension of the personal service/salon use. He suggested potential differences between the procedure and traditional tattooing.

The applicant, Courtney McMahan, addressed the board explaining the nature of cosmetic tattooing, in addition to licensing and training processes required to be a technician. The board considered the nuance in the language required to distinguish the two. They expressed an interest in having discussions at a workshop regarding tattoos in general before ruling on this specific case.
